3 – Please note!

- When purchasing the 'Plan' you will be required to provide a credit card authorization that serves as a payment guarantee for FirstMed. The information given on the form will be kept strictly confidential.
- The services provided or arranged by FirstMed which are not included in the scope of the Premium Plan may involve significant additional costs. Please inquire about the prices prior to the treatment.
- FirstMed is not responsible for arranging outside appointments when the planholder is paying at the point of service. FirstMed can provide contact information for outside consultants or facilities when requested.

4 - Prices

Full price (HUF / person)	200 000
Loyalty Price (3rd, 4th renewal) /person	185 000
Loyalty Price (5th - 9th renewal) /person	170 000
Loyalty Price (10th + renewal) /person	155 000
Group Price 2-4 people /person	173 000
Group Price 5-9 people /person	148 000

Group and loyalty discounts may not be combined.

The loyalty price first comes into effect during the 4th year of continuously having a plan. All loyalty prices are calculated with one (1) starting year + (x) additional renewals. E.g. the top loyalty price is given in the 11th year, and beyond, of having a plan. Plans must be renewed within 30 days of previous plan's expiration to maintain loyalty discount. Plans renewed beyond 30 days, without prior agreement of the FirstMed plan coordinator, will be considered as 'new' plans for the sake of the loyalty discount. When a plan grows from one person to two (or more) retrospective discounts will not be applied, i.e. the first members premium will not be refunded to indicate the group price. The group price will only be applied to additional members as they are added in and for as long as the 'group' exists. In the case of 'split starting date' group pricing, at renewal, if the additional planholder fails to renew within 7 days of their contract expiration, the first planholder shall pay the difference between the individual price and group price before the next use of the plan.
